

Who can apply?

T

This year's school 2010, the 3rd in the series is open to undergraduate students from the five Universities Department involved in the Erasmus IP programme. A total of 15 students will be selected on a competitive basis. In order to maintain the international character of the Greek Summer School the organizing committee will ensure that all five European countries (Denmark, Germany, Greece, Italy, UK) are well represented.

Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â

Students will participate at their own responsibility and under their own private health insurance. Students with health problems (epilepsy, heart problems, dangerous allergies etc) are requested to take appropriate advice concerning their physical ability to participate in the mountaineering field session before applying.